

HOSTING A HOPE FOR KIDS LEADERSHIP TRAINING LAB (1 ¼ DAY – USUALLY FRIDAY-SATURDAY)

The following is an overview for hosting a Hope For Kids (HFK) Lab.

Target HFK Launch Participants – The Key Adult Leadership in Children’s Ministry.

Hope For Kids Launch Team: The HFK team works with the host church/school/ ministry to address launch details. Teacher housing is appreciated.

Launch Schedule: The Hope for Kids Leadership Training is 1¼ days in length. The schedule: Friday: 5:00 PM – 8:30 PM and Saturday: 8:00 AM – 5:30 PM.

Launch Date: HFK will assist in finding a date for your Lab that is convenient for you. 1st Choice _____ 2nd Choice _____

Prayer Partners: The Host is asked to invite church members to be Prayer Partners for the lab participants and details. This is the most important way to provide effective and fruitful Hope For Kids trainings.

Registration: Participants register online at: usa.eehopeforkids.org The "host church" may register up to 6 participants. There is no registration fee. The goal is for 6 key leaders/teachers from your Church.

Materials, Equipment and Room Set Up: HFK provides training materials at no charge to the launch participants. The Host provides the facility and equipment: including tables and chairs, DVD player, projector and screen, a wireless microphone, white board with markers, (4) 8’ foot tables for display, and a registration table.

OJT (On-the-Job Training): The highlight of all Hope for Kids launches is OJT, the time when participants share the Gospel with children. HFK will help you plan one OJT activity with children.

Cost of Launch: No Charge for the materials. The Host provides travel expenses for the HFK Lab teacher, shipping costs for training materials, two light meals, a simple Continental Breakfast, snacks and drinks. $250 deposit required 30 days before HFK Lab. Deposit goes towards teacher expenses and shipping. Any remainder balance due the first day of the lab.
